

Understanding English, Communication, and Languages

- Research symbols of various protest movements and use figurative language to explore the meaning of symbols.
- Big Writing
- What makes a speech persuasive?
- Plan, draft, write and deliver a persuasive speech.

Understanding the Arts

- Use dinosaur masks and knowledge built up in the last half term to create a film about dinosaurs and palaeontology.
- Badge design and making.
- Music composition using Super Dooper Music Looper.

Revolution

Scientific and Technological Understanding

- Find out about the invention of the wheel and its impact upon human life.
- Discover how the powered wheel changed society and led to the industrial revolution.
- Plan and carry out an investigation into the best possible tyres for Grandma and Grandad to have on their new car (friction).

Please help us by...

- Talking about how attitudes towards groups of people have changed in your own lifetime
- Reading with your child as much as possible...as always!

Historical, Geographical and Social Understanding (linked with Scientific Understanding and Understanding English and Communications)

- Research and discuss various protest movements from the past and present.
- Identify the main ideas of a revolutionary movement.
- Communicate the important parts of the life of an inspirational figure.
- Empathise with a character from the past.
- Discuss and write about the impact of a revolutionary move-

Mathematical Understanding

- Compare, order and use decimals fractions and percentages.
- Understand and use ratio and proportion.
- Understand angle as a unit of measure of turn.
- Recognise and understand rotational symmetry.

Understanding Physical Development, Health and Wellbeing

- Anti-Bullying Week
- Resolving conflicts
- Tag Rugby
- Gymnastics